The Committee regret to record the deaths of Dr. J. W. Sproulle, who was a member of the Hon. Medical Staff from the opening of the Hospital, he devoted much time to the work of the Hospital in developing its sphere of usefulness to the public, and of Lord Moynihan, who was elected Hon. Consulting Surgeon to the Hospital in the year 1901.

Miss Kathleen Williamson, the Matron of the Hospital, has resigned the position on being appointed Matron to the Letehworth Hospital. Since her appointment in April, 1933, Miss Williamson has managed the Hospital very efficiently, and the Committee have much pleasure in recording their appreciation of her excellent work.

Dr. W. R. Everatt, of Ravensthorpe, has accepted the invitation of the Committee to join the Hon. Medical Staff of the Hospital.

The appreciation of the work of the Hospital is shewn in the generous contributions to the funds and the support of the many efforts promoted by enthusiastic supporters.

It is very gratifying to report that the Income for the year has been £1,891 18s. 2d. compared with £1,727 4s. 11d. last year, and Expenditure £1,616 9s. 10d. against £1,638 17s. 3d.

The Hospital is endowed under a Deed of Trust, which provides that all persons who are treated in the Hospital shall be admitted on presentation of a Subscriber's Recommendation Form, signed by a member of the Hon. Medical Staff.

The Committee have much pleasure in thanking the Ladies' Committee and the Linen League for the very valuable help they give in supplying the Linen of the Hospital; the Mirfield Workpeople's Hospital Association, who handed over £51 17s. 3d., the proceeds of the Carnival; the Mirfield Bowling League and Mr. Sykes Willans, for promoting the sale of Alexandra Roses and Bowling Tournament, which raised £52 10s. 0d.; the Workpeople of Messrs. James Walker & Sons, Ltd. (Holme Bank and Butt End Mills), Messrs. H. Wheatley & Sons, Ltd., whose efforts realized £56 13s. 9d.; the West Riding County Council, for the grant of £70 0s. 0d.; the Mirfield Baptist Military Band; the Workpeople of the factories, who have contributed £204 15s. 8d. The Committee appeal to Employers and Workpeople to consider the scheme for weekly contributions, which at the rate of 1d. per head weekly will raise a very substantial amount.

The Committee beg to thank the Hon Consulting Surgeons and the Hon. Medical Staff for their devotion to the care of the patients; the Matron and Staff, who have ministered to the welfare of the patients with untiring zeal; the Annual Subscribers; Clubs and Societies; Churches and Chapels; the Donors of many gifts; Collectors in Factories; the Hon. Treasurer; the Hon. Auditors and the Press.

The Accounts have been duly audited by Messrs. J. Binns and J. A. Bruce.
